

Alexandria Gazette.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 13, 1895.

OBJECTS TO NUDE FIGURES.—Extensive changes are to be made to the interior of the "Breakers," the new house now building for Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, at Newport, R. I., and all on account of the scruples of Mrs. Vanderbilt, she seriously objecting to some of the decorations. In the erection of the house nude figures of women were used in almost every room, some of the finest artists being engaged to do the work. It is with these figures that Mrs. Vanderbilt finds fault, and it is determined that they shall not be a part of the decorations of her house. The Grecian figures are also extensively used in the decoration. Men have been secured and alterations are to be made to these figures at great expense. Some of the figures can be made presentable by the use of drapery, some will be removed and others placed in their stead. Mrs. Vanderbilt has been greatly criticised for her determination, yet the majority of people agree with her that the nude is being carried too far at the present time. These alterations will make some difficulty in getting the house ready for occupancy.

TWINS TOO MUCH FOR HIM.—Upon the complaint of his wife, Israel Garrison, of Philadelphia, was arraigned yesterday afternoon, charged with being an idle and disorderly person. When the name of Mrs. Garrison was called as a witness against the accused, she did not put in an appearance, and then Magistrate South remembered that he knew the reason. "I understand," he said, "that your wife gave birth to twins this morning, and that you nursed her before they were born, and went back to the house after they were born and raised a disturbance." Garrison did not deny his brutal conduct, but said by way of vindication that although he was the father of 10 children he had never been blessed with twins before. "I went and got drunk when I heard I had become the father of two more children," he said, "and it may be that I behaved badly."

The magistrate fixed his bail at $500 for a further hearing two weeks hence.

REPORTED DISCOVERY OF CAVES.—Much excitement has been occasioned near J. Q. A. Kemp's mills, at Breathedsville, Washington county, Md., by Carlton Routzahn, a tenant, discovering a large cave on the Wolf Newcomer farm. He was plowing when the discovery was made. One of the horses sank into the hole up to its hips and was extricated with difficulty. On Sunday hundreds of people visited the cave, but none ventured to explore it. Soundings were made to the depth of fifty feet. Another cave was discovered nearby, which proved to be 75 feet deep. The bottom of the last cave is of rock and forms a steep incline.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenyon, of Bolan, Worth county, Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper about a new prominent German citizen of Ft. Madison had been cured. He procured the same medicine, and to use his own words: "It cured me right up." He also says: "A neighbor and his wife were both sick in bed with rheumatism. Their boy was over to my house and said they were so bad he had to do the cooking. I told him of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it cured me. He got a bottle and it could them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by L. Stabler & Co."

"A Word to the Wise is Sufficient."
I suffered terribly from roaring in my head during an attack of catarrh, and became very deaf, used Ely's Cream Balm and in three weeks could hear as well as ever.—A. E. Newman, Grading, Md.
One of my children had a very bad discharge from the nose. Physicians prescribed without benefit. After using Ely's Cream Balm a short time the disease was cured.—O. A. Cary, Corning, N. Y.
Price of Cream Balm is fifty cents.
